

Alan Wang

Emmy award winner Alan Wang anchors and reports for ABC7 News in San Francisco.

He has extensive experience in both local and national news. He covered the Columbia space shuttle explosion in 2003. His investigative work helped police solve the murder of a 2-year old boy, and his two-part series led to a federal response to the 43 year old mystery of a missing atomic bomb.

Alan began his career at KGNS-TV in Laredo, Texas, followed by KIII-TV in Corpus Christi, Texas, KFSN-TV in Fresno, California, KDFW-TV in Dallas, Texas, and WSB-TV in Atlanta, Georgia.

He grew up in Kingsville, Texas and graduated from the University of Texas at Austin.
